from Cuba. It should be ascertained also what was subject's employment in Cuba from these individuals, if possible. Also, any information indicating why subject became connected with Cuban G-2 should be set out

DALLASAT DALLAS, TEX.

Will, upon receipt of information from Miami Division, consider further investigation of a request of Bureau for interview of subject in connection with allegations set out herein.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

Based upon information received from 111th INTC Group, Miami, Fla., through the Miami Office, concerning interview of RICARDO ADELIS COBOS-RICARDO at Miami, and from the Miami Office concerning interview of ARISTIDES CALDEVILLA-JUNCOS and as subject is a stranger in Dallas and unknown to any of the Cubans residing there, a request was made of Bureau under date of 5/20/63 that the best interest of Bureau in this investigation could be served through an interview of subject. The Bureau, in letter of 6/4/63, has directed that further information should be obtained concerning subject prior to such an interview. It is with this in mind the above leads have been set out for Miami Division.

The period in this matter is extended; however, it will be noted that investigative attention has been afforded this matter at Dallas and in Miami, and the Bureau was advised concerning investigation at Dallas in letter of 5/20/63.
